Sunday of the Faithful Departed

Readings: Ez 37:1-10; 1Thess 5:1-11 and Lk 16:19-31

The “seesaw” world of the first century is epitomized in the two men in this Sunday’s Gospel. One, dressed in the finest of clothes, with more than enough to eat, stands in contrast to the other, homeless, hungry, and ill. Which of the two men will the reader envy? In the beginning of the story, certainly it is the rich man. Lazarus, sitting outside the gate of the good life, is an unappealing figure.

The turning point is death. At death, Lazarus becomes the one to envy. He is now at “the bosom of Abraham”, the place of honor and security. The rich man ignored Lazarus when he was alive. Now the rich man turns to him for help, but Lazarus has no obligation to help him. In life, Lazarus was not aided by this rich man; in death the rich man cannot be aided by Lazarus. The rich man failed to use his wealth to create a bond with the poor. The rich man’s suffering is all the more poignant by its permanence. No one can ever help him. Neither Lazarus nor Abraham can reach across the divide that separates them from him.

This seems like the logical conclusion of the story, but there is still another point to be made. The rich man wants to be a messenger of sorts; he wants to let his family know just what it is like after death so that they don’t suffer the same fate. This suggestion is rejected by Abraham, since the family knows already what to expect: “They have Moses and the prophets.” God has already revealed that care of the poor is necessary. The rich man presses further, suggesting his return from the dead will do the trick. Abraham sternly replies that if Moses and the prophets didn’t affect them, neither would someone’s resurrection.

The message in the second part of the story is complex. First, the tradition of Moses and the prophets is upheld. Someone who follows this tradition will be welcomed by God. Second, if this tradition is not held to, not even a resurrection will convince anyone to change. Christianity is in continuity with the faith of the past, with Moses and the prophets. The rich man and his family had all they needed to guide their lives yet refused to do so. Neither will the resurrection convince them. The Christians of Luke’s community are left with a choice. Whom will they be like?

February 11-17: Week of the Faithful Departed

Week of the Faithful Departed (Saturday, February 11 until Friday, February 17)

Throughout the week of the faithful departed, offer prayers for the Repose of the Souls of your beloved ones. The Communion of Saints unites those working out their salvation here on earth -The Church Militant- with those being purified in Purgatory -The Church Suffering- and those Saints in Heaven who are the Church Triumphant.

Spirituality: Prayer to Mary

I hold your name ever since birth
 With it I face the problems on earth.
 It gives me the strength to carry on
 To live, to laugh, to never be down.
 Whenever I feel sorry or sad
 I turn to you, you're never mad.
 The promises I constantly make
 Usually I break.
 But you are there forgiving me
 Giving me chances to let me see
 To understand why I'm here
 To pray, work and love with no fear.
 I praise you every morning and during the day
 My love to you will never end, Ah! No way.
 A question if I may
 Why do you keep answering my prayers when I'm always away.
 I feel your existence with me
 Open my heart and give me the key.
 The key to find happiness with you
 To walk with God and be one of the few.
 Few people that walked your way
 And found joy at the end of the day.
 I love you with all my heart
 And I will always love you as days go apart
 Your name that I hold, will always be safe
 As days go by, I promise not to be a disgrace
 Love You with All My Heart.

Wisdom: Lessons from Life

Written by a 90 years old lady.

"To celebrate growing older, I once wrote the 45 lessons life taught me.

1. Life isn't fair, but it's still good.
2. When in doubt, just take the next small step.
3. Life is too short - enjoy it.
4. Your job won't take care of you when you are sick. Your friends and family will.
5. Pay off your credit cards every month.
6. You don't have to win every argument. Stay true to yourself.
7. Cry with someone. It's more healing than crying alone.
8. It's OK to get angry with God. He can take it.
9. Save for retirement starting with your first paycheck.
10. When it comes to chocolate, resistance is futile.
11. Make peace with your past so it won't screw up the present.
12. It's OK to let your children see you cry.
13. Don't compare your life to others. You have no idea what their journey is all about.

14. If a relationship has to be a secret, you shouldn't be in it.
15. Everything can change in the blink of an eye, but don't worry, God never blinks.
16. Take a deep breath. It calms the mind.
17. Get rid of anything that isn't useful. Clutter weighs you down in many ways.
18. Whatever doesn't kill you really does make you stronger.
19. It's never too late to be happy. But it's all up to you and no one else.
20. When it comes to going after what you love in life, don't take no for an answer.
21. Burn the candles, use the nice sheets, wear the fancy lingerie. Don't save it for a special occasion. Today is special.
22. Over prepare, then go with the flow.
23. Be eccentric now. Don't wait for old age to wear purple.
24. The most important sex organ is the brain.
25. No one is in charge of your happiness but you.
26. Frame every so-called disaster with these words 'In five years, will this matter?'
27. Always choose life.
28. Forgive
29. What other people think of you is none of your business.
30. Time heals almost everything. Give time time.
31. However good or bad a situation is, it will change.
32. Don't take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
33. Believe in miracles.
34. God loves you because of who God is, not because of anything you did or didn't do.
35. Don't audit life. Show up and make the most of it now.
36. Growing old beats the alternative of dying young.
37. Your children get only one childhood.
38. All that truly matters in the end is that you loved.
39. Get outside every day. Miracles are waiting everywhere.
40. If we all threw our problems in a pile and saw everyone else's, we'd grab ours back.
41. Envy is a waste of time. Accept what you already have, not what you need
42. The best is yet to come...
43. No matter how you feel, get up, dress up and show up.
44. Yield.
45. Life isn't tied with a bow, but it's still a gift."

Story: Morning Service

Every Sunday afternoon, after the morning service at their church, the Pastor and his eleven-year-old son would go out into their town and hand out Gospel Tracts. This particular Sunday afternoon, as it came time for the Pastor and his son to go to the streets with their tracts, it was very cold outside as well as pouring down rain. The boy bundled up in his warmest and driest clothes and said, "OK dad, I'm ready." His pastor dad asked, "Ready for what?" "Dad, it's time we gather our tracts together and go out." Dad responds, "Son, it's very cold outside and it's pouring down rain." The boy gives his dad a surprised look, asking, "But dad, aren't people still going to Hell, even though it's raining?" Dad answers, "Son, I am not going out in this weather." Despondently the boy asks, "Dad, can I go? Please?" His father hesitated for a moment then said, "Son, you can go. Here are the tracts; be careful son." "Thanks Dad!!!" And with that he was off and out into the rain. This eleven-year-old boy walked the streets of the town going door to door and handing everybody he met in the street a Gospel Tract. After 2 hours of walking in the rain he was soaking bone-chilled wet and down to his VERY LAST TRACT. He stopped on a corner and looked for someone to hand a tract to but the streets were totally deserted. Then he turned toward the first home he saw and started up the sidewalk to the front door and rang the doorbell. He rang the bell--but nobody answered. He rang it again and again bit still no one answered. He waited but still no answer. Finally this eleven-year-old trooper turned to leave but something stopped him. Again, he turned to the door and rang the bell and knocked loudly on the door with his fist. He waited, something holding him there on the front porch. He rang again, and this time the door slowly opened. Standing in the doorway was a very sad looking elderly lady? She softly asked, "What can I do for you son?" With radiant eyes and a smile that lit up her world this little boy said, "Ma'am, I'm sorry if I disturbed you, but I just want to tell you that JESUS REALLY DOES LOVE YOU, and I came to give you my very last Gospel Tract which will tell you all about JESUS and His great LOVE." With that he handed her his last tract, and turned to leave. She called to him as he departed, "Thank you son! And God Bless You!"

Well, the following Sunday Morning in Church, Pastor dad was in the pulpit and as the service began he asked, "Does anybody have a testimony or want to say anything?" Slowly, in the back row of the Church, an elderly lady stood to her feet. As she began to speak a look of glorious radiance came from her face as she said, "None of you in this church know me. I've never been here before. You see, before last Sunday I was not a Christian. My husband has passed on, some time ago, leaving me totally alone in this world. Last Sunday, being a particularly cold and rainy day, it was even more so in my heart as I came to the end of the line where I no longer had any hope or will to live. So I took a rope and a chair and ascended the stairway into the attic of my home. I fastened the rope securely to a rafter in the roof then stood on the chair and fastened the other end of the rope around my neck. Standing on that chair, so lonely and brokenhearted, I was about to leap off when suddenly the loud ringing of my doorbell downstairs startled me. I thought, 'I'll wait a minute, and whoever it is will go away.' I waited and waited, but the ringing doorbell seemed to get louder and more insistent and then the person ringing also started knocking loudly. I thought to myself again, 'who on earth could this be? Nobody ever rings my bell or comes to see me.' I loosened the rope from my neck and started for the front door, all the while the bell rang louder and louder. When I opened the door and looked I could hardly believe my eyes for there on my front porch was the most radiant and angelic little boy I had ever seen in my life. His smile, Oh, I could never describe it to you!!! And the words that came from his mouth caused my heart, that had long been dead, to leap to life as he exclaimed with cherub like voice, 'Ma'am, I just came to tell you that JESUS REALLY DOES LOVE YOU.'" Then he gave me this Gospel Tract that I now hold in my hand. As the little angel disappeared back out, into the cold and rain, I closed my door and read slowly every word of this Gospel Tract. Then I went up to my attic to get my rope and chair. I wouldn't need them any more. You see, I am now a happy child of the King, and since the address of your Church was on the back of this Gospel Tract I have come here to personally say thank you to God's little angel who came just in the nick of time and, by so doing, spared my soul from eternity in hell." There were now no dry eyes in the Church. And as shouts of praise, and honor to the King, resounded off the very rafters of the building, Pastor dad descended from the pulpit to the front pew where the little angel was seated; he took him in his arms and sobbed uncontrollably. Probably no church has had a more glorious moment. And probably this universe has never seen a Papa that was more filled with love & honor for his son, except for one -- this Father also allowed His Son to go out into a cold & dark world. He received His Son back with joy unspeakable, and as all of heaven shouted praises and honor to the King. The Father sat His beloved Son on a throne far above all principalities and powers.... and every name that is named.... Whatever the case, and whatever the problem or situation you find yourself in, and no matter how dark it may seem, I want you to know that I just came to tell you, JESUS REALLY DOES LOVE YOU.

A Time to Laugh (49)

Enlightenment

A great and foolish king complained that the rough ground hurt his feet, so he ordered the whole country to be carpeted with cowhide.

The court jester laughed when the king told him of his order. "What an absolutely crazy idea, your Majesty," he cried. "Why all the needless expenses? Just cut out two small pads of cowhide to protect your feet!"

That is what the king did. And that is how the idea of shoes was born.

Marathon

The very first person to run a marathon died for his efforts. In 490 B.C.E., an anonymous Athenian ran from the village of Marathon to Athens -approximately 26 miles- to carry the news that the Athenians had defeated the Persians. He completed his run, made his announcement, and dropped dead.

Funny Quote:

"The word "genius" isn't applicable in football. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein." (Joe Theisman, NFL football quarterback & sports analyst.)

The lawyer and the loan

A New Orleans lawyer sought a Federal Housing Administration (FHA) loan for a client. He was told the loan would be granted if he could prove satisfactory title to a parcel of property being offered as collateral. The title to the property dated back to 1803, which took the lawyer three months to track down.

After sending the information to the FHA, he received the following reply (actual letter):

"Upon review of your letter adjoining your client's loan application, we note that the request is supported by an Abstract of Title. While we compliment the able manner in which you have prepared and presented the application, we must point out that you have only cleared title to the proposed collateral property back to 1803. Before final approval can be accorded, it will be necessary to clear the title back to its origin."

Annoyed, the lawyer responded as follows:

"Your letter regarding title in Case No. 189156 has been received. I note that you wish to have the title extended further than the 194 years covered by the present application. I was unaware that any educated person in this country, particularly those working in the property area, would not know that Louisiana was purchased by the U.S. from France in 1803, the year of origin identified in our application.

For the edification of uninformed FHA bureaucrats, the title to the land prior to U.S. ownership was obtained from France, which had acquired it by Right of Conquest from Spain. The land came into the possession of Spain by Right of Discovery made in the year 1492 by a sea captain named Christopher Columbus, who had been granted the privilege of seeking a new route to India by the Spanish monarch, Isabella. The good queen, Isabella, being a pious woman and almost as careful about titles as the FHA, took the precaution of securing the blessing of the Pope before she sold her jewels to finance Columbus' expedition.

Now the Pope, as I'm sure you may know, is the emissary of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. And God, it is commonly accepted, created this world. Therefore, I believe it is safe to presume that God also made that part of the world called Louisiana. God, therefore, would be the owner of origin and His origins date back to before the beginning of time, the world as we know it, AND the FHA. I hope you find God's original claim to be satisfactory. Now, may we have our loan?"

The loan was approved.

Relationships

A woman was at her singing lessons. She had such a jarring voice that a neighbor could take it no more. He managed, finally, to summon up the courage to knock at her door and say: "Madam, if you don't stop your singing I think I'll go mad!"

"What are you talking about?" said the woman. "I stopped two hours ago!"

[So sorry! It isn't you I am dealing with but an image in my head]
