Gospel Reflection: 4th Sunday of the Resurrection

Readings: Gen 1:20-23; Heb 13:18-25 and Jn 21:1-14

We get discouraged when we don't experience Christ in our midst. We want to return to our former way of life and forget about the whole thing. Others may even say, "We will go with you" (in 2 1:3). Soon we learn that our self-guided enterprises are doomed to failure. In the darkness of our disbelief, we hear a familiar voice and we know, "It is the Lord" (v 7).

Filled with the spirit of the risen Christ, we boldly proclaim his message of repentance and forgiveness. When we speak in his name, we discover that we are not alone. We are surrounded by a myriad of witnesses who cry, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing" (Rev 5:12). "Follow me" (in 21:19), he calls as we go out to feed his lambs and sheep. When we answer "Amen," we are Christ's presence in an unbelieving world.

Miracles of Jesus (21, 22 & 23)

The 21st miracle of Jesus when he healed many people

They crossed over the lake and landed at Gennesaret. The men who lived there recognized Jesus. So, they sent a message all over the nearby countryside. People brought all those who were sick to Jesus. They begged him to let those who were sick just touch the edge of his clothes. And all who touched his clothes were healed.

(Matthew 14:34-36)

The 22nd miracle of Jesus when he healed a Woman possessed with demon

Jesus left Galilee and went to the area of Tyre and Sidon. A woman from Canaan lived near Tyre and Sidon. She came to him and cried out, "Lord! Son of David! Have mercy on me! A demon controls my daughter. She is suffering terribly." Jesus did not say a word. So, his disciples came to him. They begged him, "Send her away. She keeps crying out after us." Jesus answered, "I was sent only to the people of Israel. They are like lost sheep." Then the woman fell to her knees in front of him. "Lord! Help me!" she said. He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." "Yes, it is, Lord," she said. "Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their owner's table." Then Jesus said to her, "Woman, you have great faith! You will be given what you are asking for." And her daughter was healed at that moment. (Matthew 15:21-28)

The 23rd miracle of Jesus when he healed a Man Who Could Not Hear or Speak

Then Jesus left the area of Tyre and went through Sidon. He went down to the Sea of Galilee and into the area known as the Ten Cities. There some people brought a man to Jesus. The man was deaf and could hardly speak. They begged Jesus to place his hand on the man. Jesus took the man to one side, away from the crowd. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then he spit and touched the man's tongue. Jesus looked up to heaven. With a deep sigh, he said to the man, "Ephphatha!" That means "Be opened!" The man's ears were opened. His tongue was freed up, and he began to speak clearly. Jesus ordered the people not to tell anyone. But the more he did so, the more they kept talking about it. People were really amazed. "He has done everything well," they said. "He even makes deaf people able to hear. And he makes those who can't speak able to talk." (Mark 7:31-37)

Bake Sale Orders (Deadline is April 29th)

The May Bake Sale order deadline is Wednesday, April 29th. We are unable to accept any orders after April 29th.

Supply orders (i.e. fresh ground beef, fresh onions) have a shorter lead time this year, causing us to finalize order totals earlier.

Please submit your May Bake Sale orders BEFORE April 29th. Any orders received after April 29th will be held and fulfilled from the Bake Sale table and not guaranteed.

Thank you for your understanding and support!

May Crowning Procession (Sunday, May 3rd after Mass)

The May Queen this year will be Eloise Chapman, the daughter of Matt and Senator Laura Wakim-Chappman. She is the granddaughter of Chris and Jeannette Wakim. The procession will take place on Sunday, May 3rd after Mass. All parishioners are invited to a complimentary brunch sponsored by the parents and grandparents of the May Queen.

Question & Answer (#65)

Question #65: “Is it a sin to kill animals?”

Answer: Animals can justly be used for food, clothing, medical testing and, even, in moderation, for sports. Nevertheless, we should avoid cruelty to animals and unnecessary infliction of pain.

Scripture reveals it was in God's plan that man subdue and have dominion over the earth (Gen. 1:28). However, this position of dominion can be taken to an extreme. We are not allowed to indiscriminately abuse or kill animals for pleasure. The Catechism says this dominion is “not an arbitrary or destructive domination”.

While there is nothing wrong with working to prevent cruelty to animals, we should work all the harder to defend human rights, especially for the most vulnerable among us such as pre-horn babies, the infirmed, and the poor.

Spirituality

One rainy afternoon I was driving along one of the main streets of town, taking those extra precautions necessary when the roads are wet and slick. Suddenly, my son Matthew spoke up from his relaxed position in the front seat. “Mom, I'm thinking of something.” This announcement usually meant he had been pondering some fact for a while and was now ready to expound all that his seven-year-old mind had discovered. I was eager to hear. “What are you thinking?” I asked. “The rain,” he began, “is like sin and the windshield wipers are like God, wiping our sins away.” After the chill bumps raced up my arms, I was able to respond.

“That's really good, Matthew.” Then my curiosity broke in. How far would this little boy take this revelation? So, I asked... “Do you notice how the rain keeps on coming? What does that tell you?” Matthew didn't hesitate one moment with his answer: “We keep on sinning, and God just keeps on forgiving us.” I will always remember this whenever I turn my wipers on. Isn't it comforting to know that God does keep forgiving us? That all we have to do is ask Him to come into our lives and He will keep washing our sins away.

Hope each of you remember this when you turn on your wipers for God does keep forgiving when we invite him into our life.

Wisdom

When I look at a patch of dandelions, I see a bunch of weeds that are going to take over my yard. My kids see flowers for Mom and blowing white fluff you can wish on.

When I look at an old drunk and he smiles at me, I see a smelly, dirty person who probably wants money and I look away. My kids see someone smiling at them and they smile back.

When I hear music I love, I know I can't carry a tune and don't have much rhythm so I sit self-consciously and listen. My kids feel the beat and move to it. They sing out the words. If they don't know them, they make up their own.

When I feel wind on my face, I brace myself against it. I feel it messing up my hair and pulling me back when I walk. My kids close their eyes, spread their arms and fly with it, until they fall to the ground laughing.

When I pray, I say thee and thou and grant me this, give me that. My kids say, "Hi God! Thanks for my toys and my friends. Please keep the bad dreams away tonight. Sorry, I don't want to go to Heaven yet. I would miss my Mommy and Daddy."

When I see a mud puddle I step around it. I see muddy shoes and dirty carpets. My kids sit in it. They see dams to build, rivers to cross, and worms to play with.

I wonder if we are given kids to teach or to learn from? No wonder God loves the little children! Enjoy the little things in life, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things. I wish you Big Mud Puddles and Sunny Yellow Dandelions!!!

Story

A man was flying from Seattle to San Francisco. Unexpectedly, the plane stopped in Sacramento along the way. The flight attendant explained that there would be a delay, and if the passengers wanted to get off the aircraft, the plane would re-board in 50 minutes.

Everybody got off the plane except one gentleman who was blind. The man had noticed him as he walked by and could tell the gentleman was blind because his seeing eye dog lay quietly underneath the seats in front of him throughout the entire flight. He could also tell he had flown this very flight before because the pilot approached him, and calling him by name, said, "Keith, we're in Sacramento for almost an hour. Would you like to get off and stretch your legs?" The blind man replied, "No thanks, but maybe my dog would like to stretch his legs."

Picture this: All the people in the gate area came to a complete standstill when they looked up and saw the pilot walk off the plane with a Seeing Eye dog! The pilot was even wearing sunglasses. People scattered. They not only tried to change planes, but they were trying to change airlines!

True story . . . Have a great day and remember . . . things aren't always as they appear!!!!

Jokes (218)

The Cell Phone and the Blonde

A young man wanted to get his beautiful blonde wife something nice for their first wedding anniversary, so he decided to buy her a cellular telephone.

She was all excited and loved her phone. He explained to her all the features of the phone.

The next day, the blonde went shopping.

Her phone rang; it was her husband. "Hi, Hon," he said. "How do you like your new phone?" She replied, "I just love it. It's so small and your voice is clear as a bell; but, there's one thing I don't understand."

"What's that, Baby?" "How did you know I was at Wal-Mart?"

The Blonde and the License

A police officer stopped a blonde for speeding and asked her very nicely if he could see her license.

She replied in a huff, "I wish you guys would get your stupid act together. Just yesterday, you took away my license. Today, you expect me to show it to you!"

The Blonde in the Vacuum

A blonde was playing Trivial Pursuit with friends one night. It was her turn. She rolled the dice and landed on "Science and Nature."

Her question was, "If you are in a vacuum and someone calls your name, can you hear it?"

She thought for a time and then asked, "Is it on or off?"

Little Brown Box of Excuses

When Mark TWAIN was an impoverished young reporter in Virginia City, he was walking along the street one day with a cigar box under his arm. He encountered a wealthy woman he knew, who said reproachfully, "You promised me that you would give up smoking." "Madam," replied TWAIN, "This box does not contain cigars. I'm just moving."

The Blonde and the Iron

A blonde with two red ears went to her doctor. The doctor asked her what had happened to her ears and she answered, "I was ironing a shirt and the telephone rang. But, instead of picking up the phone, I accidentally picked up the iron and stuck it to my ear."

"Oh, dear," exclaimed the doctor. "But, what happened to your other ear?"

"The jerk called back," she replied.

Quick Wit

A tourist traveling down a country road in the Deep South passed a young boy walking down the road wearing only one shoe.

The tourist stopped the car and asked the boy, "You lose a shoe?"

"Nope," the boy replied, "just found one."

Looking for a Gun

A woman went to a gun shop and told the clerk, "I'm looking for a gun for my husband."

The clerk asked the woman, "Did your husband tell you what kind of gun he wants?"

"Oh no," the woman answered, "He doesn't even know that I'm going to shoot him."
